

Beautiful rooms with an enchanting tranquility

As the saying goes “Happiness is sleeping in your own bed”. We very much agree with this, but the second-best bed you will ever sleep in, is located at Holberggaard.

An almost enchanting tranquility is perceivable, as you lie in bed, listening to the gentle sound of wind, caressing the crops in the fields. This is why we do not have TV’s in our rooms – the only sounds of the night are the occasional howl of an owl or the chirps of a nightingale.

You will experience a completely different, cordial, kind of sleep in our beds. And you will wake up refreshed and enthusiastic, to a wonderful view of the sea and the rolling fields in the morning sun. All of our apartments have private bathrooms, toilets and a fully equipped kitchen.

Our apartments are available throughout the year, and during the summer it is entirely possible to rent them as holiday homes on a weekly basis.
